Mrs. A. Manley
101 Montgomery Street
Newark, N.J.

Dear Mrs. Manley:

I talked to Gus Greenlee to-night and he advised that because of conditions confronting him the best procedure is to definitely keep the Crawford's out of the Negro League schedule.

He might decide to operate an independent team on the co-plan, and if they show the proper form, he might then request that they be included in the League. I assured him that we would cooperate in every possible way, and that we would keep an opening for him which he could avail himself of at any time.

You no doubt noticed the articles that appeared in all the Negro papers this week, in which Gus Greenlee made a statement to the effect that he resigned as president of the Pittsburgh Crawford's. After reading this I called Gus to find out exactly how things stood, and, of course, got the above answer.

I'm writing Cum Posey and Tom Wilson explaining the current situation. Our next move is to get together on a meeting and rearrange the schedule, after which we will be ready to definitely prepare for the season.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

Ed. Gottlieb
